Healing Our Soils, Healing Ourselves

Saturday February 14, 2015

Healing our Soils: 9:00 – 12:00 pm

Healing Ourselves: 2:00 – 5:00 pm

HEALING OUR SOILS: True Sustainability for Field, Farm, and Forest

With Hugh Courtney - 9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Hugh J. Courtney was honored for lifetime achievement at the 2014 Biodynamic Association Conference for 40 years of leadership in biodynamics. Operating under the banner of Earth Legacy Agriculture he & his grandson Jeremiah Proctor, are offering support services to biodynamic growers focusing on weed & other pest problems.

Hugh will tell us how to

- ✿ Save Hemlocks from the Hemlock woolly adelgid
- ✿ Use the biodynamic preparations & the biodynamic planting calendar
- ✿ Stir preparations & use them for a biodynamic seed bath

HEALING OURSELVES: Homeopathy for Hearth & Home

With Elisabeth C. Courtney, N.D. - 2:00 – 5:00 pm

Certified by the British Institute of Homeopathy in 2008, under Dr. A. U. Ramakrishnan and recipient of a degree as Doctor of Naturopathic Medicine, Kingdom College of Natural Health; Liz has clients across the world & is focused on more positive approaches to nutrition and health through re-mineralization and homeopathy especially for organic and biodynamic farm families.

Liz will talk about

- ✿ Family & women's health
- ✿ Childhood trauma
- ✿ Sources of illness
- ✿ Practical & simple tools to use for healing
- ✿ The best homeopathic kits for families & where to get them
