

Meadowlark Hearth

10th Annual Seed Festival!

September 4th 2022 9AM-5PM

Everyone is welcome, from beginning gardeners to professional growers. There will be hands on seed cleaning techniques demonstrated, interactive farm tours, and much more! A fun time for the whole family. There are plenty of places to camp out for the weekend if you are interested! Please RSVP!

Meadowlark Hearth is a certified organic and biodynamic farm which produces vegetable seeds in a whole farm context. It is hard to put to words what all happens at this special place; the best way to get to know the farm is to come experience it in person!
